

Diamana™ D-Limited

LOW LAUNCH, LOW SPIN

The legendary performance of our low-launching White Board profile is now available globally, including Asia and Japan. Featuring our DIALEAD™ Pitch Fiber and Tough-QURE™ Resin System for maximum stability and powerful energy transfer, Diamana™ D Limited delivers the low, piercing performance that's made our White Board profile the favored choice of so many great players – including the winners of six Majors in the last three years. With a lineup that now includes two additional flexes (SR, X) and a 50g model – along with fresh new look that includes our stunning Ion Plating finish – it's a series built to succeed worldwide. Diamana™ D Limited is best for players looking to maximize both distance and performance with a low, penetrating ball flight.

Technologies: Dialead® Pitch Fiber, Tough-Qure™ Resin System, Premium Ion Plating
